1. Respondent is a Singapore-based company engaged in payment processing services.

2. The Texas Department of Banking (the “Department”) has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this proceeding pursuant to Texas Finance Code (“Finance Code”) Chapter 152 (“Chapter 152”) and including its predecessor statute Chapter 151 (“Chapter 151”). The Commissioner has authority to issue this Consent Order (“Order”) and to assess administrative penalties pursuant to Finance Code §§ 152.406, and 152.407.

6. Any violation of this Order could subject Respondent to additional regulatory or enforcement actions authorized by Chapter 152 and other provisions of Texas law. Nothing in this Order diminishes the regulatory or enforcement powers of the Department, the Commissioner, or the Finance Commission of Texas under Chapter 152 or other applicable law.

7. For purposes of this proceeding, Respondent knowingly and voluntarily waives:

8. Respondent and the Commissioner agree to this Order solely for the purpose of this proceeding, and without Respondent admitting or denying the factual findings of the Commissioner stated herein or any violations of law or regulations. This Order does not constitute an admission by Respondent that Chapter 152, Chapter 151, or a rule adopted, or order issued under Chapter 152 or Chapter 151 has been violated.

I. Findings

9. The Commissioner has considered this matter and finds as follows:
 - a. Respondent provides payment processing services for merchant partners which allow the merchants to accept payment in stablecoin and other non-convertible cryptocurrencies, as well as allow the merchants to send stablecoin and other non-convertible cryptocurrencies to designated recipients.

b. An application for a Texas money transmission license submitted by a subsidiary of the Respondent, Triple A Technologies Inc., was accepted for filing by the Department on October 23, 2025.

c. Under Finance Code § 151.301(b)(4), money transmission meant “the receipt of money or monetary value by any means in exchange for a promise to make the money or monetary value available at a later time or different location.” Chapter 151 defines engaging in the business of money transmission as receiving compensation or expecting to receive compensation, directly or indirectly, for conducting money transmission. Finance Code § 151.302(b).

d. Finance Code § 152.003(22)(A)(iii) defines money transmission to specifically include “receiving money for money transmission services from a person located in this state.” The Department has interpreted “money transmission services” to include (a) receipt of money or money value by any means, and (b) a reciprocal promise to make money or monetary value available at a later time or different location. Chapter 152 deems a person to be engaging in the business of money transmission if “the person receives compensation or expects to receive compensation, directly or indirectly, for conducting money transmission.” Finance Code § 152.101(b).

e. The Department has concluded that Respondent has conducted money transmission in this state by receiving money or monetary value and then transmitting an equivalent value of money or monetary value to its merchant partner or a recipient designated by the merchant.

f. Finance Code § 151.302(a) provided that “a person may not engage in the business of money transmission or advertise, solicit, or hold itself out as a person that engages in the business of money transmission” without a license unless it is an authorized delegate of a license holder, is excluded from licensure under Chapter 151, or has been granted an exemption under Chapter 151.

g. Finance Code § 152.101(a) provides that “ a person may not engage in the business of money transmission or advertise, solicit, or hold itself out as engaging in the business of money transmission” without a license unless it is an authorized delegate of a license holder, is excluded from licensure under Chapter 152, or has been granted an exemption under Chapter 152.

h. As described above, the Department has concluded that: (i) Respondent has been conducting money transmission in Texas as defined in Chapters 151 and 152; (ii) the Department has not licensed Respondent; (iii) Respondent is not an authorized delegate of a license holder; (iv) At the time of the Department’s original inquiry, Respondent was not excluded from licensure under Chapter 151 or Chapter 152 and had not been granted an exemption under Chapter 151 or Chapter 152. Consequently, the Commissioner finds that Respondent has violated Finance Code § 151.302 and Finance Code §152.101.

i. As required by Finance Code § 152.407(d), the Commissioner has considered the seriousness of the violation, Respondent’s compliance history, and Respondent's good faith attempt to comply with Chapter 151 and Chapter 152.

10. Respondent has agreed to pay the amount set out in the Order below.

11. Nothing in this Order shall prohibit Respondent or an affiliate of the Respondent from obtaining a money transmission license from the Department in the future.

12. This Order does not restrict the Department with respect to any enforcement action, or other recourse, regarding any other violations by Respondent not now known to the Department which may come to the attention of the Department. Nothing herein shall be construed to limit Respondent's right to contest any future finding or determination of non-compliance.

13. The terms, conditions, and limitations of this Order may be amended or terminated at any time upon the written agreement of both parties.

Order

It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that:

14. Within 30 days of the effective date of this Order, Respondent shall pay $20,000 to the Department as an administrative penalty under Finance Code § 152.407.

15. Respondent will cease conducting money transmission in Texas until otherwise licensed or exempt from licensure as detailed in and provided for under Chapter 152 of the Finance Code. This paragraph shall not be interpreted to prevent Respondent's subsidiary from engaging in money transmission activity within Texas while duly licensed by the Department.

Effective Date

This Order against Respondent is effective on the date signed by the Commissioner and is final and non-appealable as of that date.

Signed on this 23rd day of September, 2026
