IV.

Redress Plan

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

12. Within 30 days of the Effective Date, Defendants must submit to the

17. With respect to any redress not made before the Effective Date of this Order, the Redress Plan must include: (1) the template of the communication (“Redress Notification Letter”) that will be sent notifying Affected Consumers of the redress; and (2) if the communication will be mailed, the form of the envelope that will contain the Redress Notification Letter. The Redress Notification Letter must include language explaining the manner in which the amount of redress was calculated, including interest and a statement that the refund payment is being made in accordance with the terms of this Order. Defendants must not include in any envelope or with any email containing a Redress Notification Letter any materials other than the approved letters and redress checks, unless Defendants have obtained written confirmation from the Enforcement Director that the Bureau does not object to the inclusion of such additional materials.

18. Defendants will provide to the Enforcement Director a template of the follow-up communication (“Follow-Up Redress Notification Letter”) that will be sent to Affected Consumers. The Follow-Up Redress Notification Letter must include language explaining the manner in which the amount of redress was calculated, including interest and a statement that the refund payment is being made in accordance with the terms of this Order.

After such time those monies will be deposited into the U.S. Treasury.

21. If the amount of redress that Defendants provided to Affected Consumers before the Effective Date of this Order is less than the sum total of the amounts stated in the Redress Plan in response to Paragraphs 13.a and 13.c of this Order, then within 30 days of the completion of the Redress Plan, Defendants must pay to the Bureau, by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent, and according to the Bureau's wiring instructions, the difference between the redress paid before the Effective Date and the sum total of the amounts stated in the Redress Plan in response to Paragraphs 13.a and 13.c of this Order.

22. The Bureau may use any remaining funds, including those collected under Paragraph 21, to pay additional redress to Affected Consumers. If the Bureau determines, in its sole discretion, that additional redress is wholly or partially impracticable or otherwise inappropriate, or if funds remain after the additional redress is completed, the Bureau will deposit any remaining funds in the U.S. Treasury. Defendants will have no right to challenge any actions that the Bureau or its representatives may take under this Section.

23. Defendants must not condition the payment of any redress to any Affected Consumer under this Order on that person's agreement to any condition, such as the waiver of any right. If any redress already made was conditioned on any waivers, those waivers are void and unenforceable.

V.

Assessment of Redress

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

24. Defendants must retain, at their own expense, the services of an independent certified accounting firm (“Firm”), within 15 days after the Enforcement Director’s non-objection pursuant to Paragraph 12, to determine compliance with the Redress Plan. 25. Before retaining the Firm described in Paragraph 24, and no later than 60 days from the Effective Date, Defendants must submit the name and qualifications of the Firm, together with the proposed engagement letter with the Firm and the proposed agreed-upon procedures, to the Enforcement Director for non-objection. Within 15 days after submission of the Firm’s name, the Enforcement Director must notify the Defendants in writing of the Bureau’s objection or non-objection thereto.

26. The Firm must prepare a detailed written report of its assessment of the Defendant’s compliance with the terms of the Redress Plan (“Redress Report”). The Redress Report must include an assessment of the Redress Plan and the methodology used to determine the population of Affected Consumers, the amount of redress for each Affected Consumer and the overall amount of redress provided to all Affected Consumers, the procedures used to issue and track redress payments, and the work of any independent consultants that Defendants have used to assist and review their execution of the Redress Plan.

27. The Firm must submit the Redress Report to the Enforcement Director and the Board within 90 days after Defendants complete implementation of the Redress Plan.

VI.

Order to Pay Civil Money Penalty

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

28. Under § 1055(c) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c), by reason of the violations of law alleged in the Complaint, and taking into account the factors in 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c)(3), a judgment for a civil money penalty is entered in favor of the Bureau and against Defendants Loan Doctor, LLC and Edgar Radjabli, jointly and severally, in the amount of $391,530. Under 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c)(4), the amount Defendants must pay will be remitted by $241,530 because of Defendants' satisfaction of their obligation to pay that amount in penalties to the Securities and Exchange Commission for related conduct in SEC v. Radjabli et al., Civil Action No. 2:21-cv-01761 (D.S.C.).

29. Within 10 days of the Effective Date, Defendants must pay the civil money penalty by wire transfer to the Bureau or the Bureau's agent in compliance with the Bureau's wiring instructions.

30. The civil money penalty paid under this Order will be deposited in the Civil Penalty Fund of the Bureau as required by § 1017(d) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5497(d).

31. Defendants must treat the civil money penalty paid under this Order as a penalty paid to the government for all purposes. Defendants may not:

- a. claim, assert, or apply for a tax deduction, tax credit, or any other tax benefit for any civil money penalty paid under this Order; or
- b. seek or accept, directly or indirectly, reimbursement or indemnification from any source, including but not limited to payment made under any insurance policy, with regard to any civil money penalty paid under this Order.

32. Defendant Radjabli agrees that the civil penalty imposed by the Order represents a civil penalty owed to the United States Government, is not compensation for actual pecuniary loss, and, thus, is not subject to discharge under the Bankruptcy Code under 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(7).

VII.

Additional Monetary Provisions

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

33. In the event of any default on Defendants' obligations to make payments under this Order, interest, computed under 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, will accrue on any outstanding amounts not paid from the date of default to the date of payment and will immediately become due and payable.

34. Defendants relinquish all dominion, control, and title to the funds paid under this Order to the fullest extent permitted by law, and no part of the funds may be returned to Defendants.

35. In any proceeding based on the entry of the Order, or in any subsequent civil litigation by or on behalf of the Bureau, including in a proceeding to enforce the Bureau's rights to any payment or monetary judgment under this Order, such as a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case, the facts alleged in the Complaint will be taken as true and be given collateral estoppel effect, without further proof.

36. For the purpose of supporting an action by the Bureau under § 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), the facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain such an action, and for such purposes this Order will have collateral estoppel effect against each Defendant, even in such Defendant's capacity as debtor-in-possession.

37. Under 31 U.S.C. § 7701, Defendants, unless they have already done so, must furnish to the Bureau their taxpayer-identification numbers, which may be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order.

38. Within 30 days of the entry of a final judgment, consent order, or settlement in a Related Consumer Action, Defendants must notify the Enforcement Director of the final judgment, consent order, or settlement in writing. That notification must indicate the amount of redress, if any, that Defendants paid or are required to pay to consumers and describe the consumers or classes of consumers to whom that redress has been or will be paid. To preserve the deterrent effect of the civil money penalty in any Related Consumer Action, Defendants may not argue that Defendants are entitled to, nor may Defendants benefit by, any offset or reduction of any monetary remedies imposed in the Related Consumer Action because of the civil money penalty paid in this action or because of any payment that the Bureau makes from the Civil Penalty Fund. If the court in any Related Consumer Action offsets or otherwise reduces the amount of compensatory monetary remedies imposed against Defendants based on the civil money penalty paid in this action or based on any payment that the Bureau makes from the Civil Penalty Fund, Defendants must, within 30 days after entry of a final order granting such offset or reduction, notify the Bureau and pay the amount of the offset or reduction to the U.S. Treasury. Such a payment will not be considered an additional civil money penalty and will not change the amount of the civil money penalty imposed in this action.

39. Upon written request, any consumer-reporting agency must furnish consumer reports to the Bureau concerning Defendant Radjabli under § 604(a)(1) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681b(a)(1), which may be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order.
