- (1) A consumer may elect to place a security freeze on the consumer's consumer report by written request, sent by certified mail, find that includes clear and proper 6 identification,] to a consumer reporting agency at an address designated by the consumer reporting agency to receive security freeze requests [such request], or by the use of telephone, fax, or Web-based or other electronic method 8 that the consumer reporting agency has established to receive security 10 freeze requests. A request made pursuant to this subsection shall include clear and proper identification. A consumer reporting agency shall place a 12 security freeze on a consumer's consumer report no later than ten (10) business days after receiving a written request made pursuant to this 13 14 subsection for the placement of a security freeze from the consumer.
 - When a security freeze is in place, information from a consumer's consumer report shall not be released to a third party without prior express authorization from the consumer. This subsection does not prevent a consumer reporting agency from advising a third party that a security freeze is in effect with respect to the consumer's consumer report.
 - (2) The consumer reporting agency shall, no later than ten (10) business days after the date the agency receives the request for a security freeze, provide the consumer with a unique personal identification number or password to be used by the consumer when providing authorization for the access to his or her credit file for a specific period of time. In addition, the consumer reporting agency shall simultaneously provide to the consumer in writing the process of placing, removing, and temporarily lifting a security freeze and the process for allowing access to information from the consumer's credit file for a specific period while the security

- (3) A consumer may request [in writing] a replacement personal identification number or password in the same manner utilized in subsection (1) of this section to request the initial security freeze and shall also include clear and proper identification. [The request shall comply with the requirements for requesting a security freeze under subsection (1) of this section.] No later than ten (10) business days after the date the consumer reporting agency receives the request for a replacement personal identification number or password, the consumer reporting agency shall[, not later than the tenth business day after the date the agency receives the request for a replacement personal identification number or password,] provide the consumer with a new, unique personal identification number or password to be used by the consumer instead of the number or password that was provided under subsection (2) of this section.
- 14 (4) If a third party requests access to a consumer report on which a security freeze is in 15 effect, and this request is in connection with an application for credit, the third party 16 may treat the application as incomplete.
- 17 (5) If the consumer wishes to allow his or her consumer report or credit score to be 18 accessed for a specific period of time while a freeze is in place, the consumer shall 19 contact the consumer reporting agency and request that the freeze be temporarily
 20 lifted and provide the following:
 - (a) Clear and proper identification;
- 22 (b) The unique personal identification number or password provided by the 23 consumer reporting agency pursuant to subsection (2) or (3) of this section; 24 and
- 25 (c) The proper information regarding the time period for which the report shall be 26 available to users of the consumer report.
- 27 (6) A consumer reporting agency that receives a request from a consumer to

1			reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living;
2		(c)	"Representative" means a person who provides to a consumer reporting
3			agency sufficient proof of authority to act on behalf of a protected person; and
4		(d)	"Sufficient proof of authority" means documentation that shows a
5			representative has authority to act on behalf of a protected person, including
6			but not limited to:
7			1. A court order granting custodianship, guardianship, or conservatorship;
8			2. A birth certificate;
9			3. A lawfully executed and valid power of attorney; or
10			4. A written, notarized statement signed by a representative that expressly
11			describes the authority of the representative to act on behalf of a
12			protected person.
13	(2)	A co	onsumer reporting agency shall place a security freeze on a protected person's
14		reco	rd or consumer [credit] report if:
15		(a)	The consumer reporting agency receives a request from the protected person's
16			representative for the placement of the security freeze; and
17		(b)	The protected person's representative:
18			1. Submits the request to the consumer reporting agency at the address
19			designated by the consumer reporting agency to receive the request;
20			2. Provides to the consumer reporting agency clear and proper
21			identification of the protected person and the representative;
22			3. Provides to the consumer reporting agency sufficient proof of authority
23			to act on behalf of the protected person; and
24			4. Pays to the consumer reporting agency a fee as prescribed in subsection
25			(8) of this section.
26	(3)	If a	consumer reporting agency does not have a file pertaining to a protected person
27		whe	n the consumer reporting agency receives a request pursuant to subsection (2) of

1		this	section, the consumer reporting agency shall create a record for the protected
2		pers	on.
3	(4)	Witl	nin thirty (30) days after receiving a request pursuant to this section, a consumer
4		repo	orting agency shall place a security freeze on the protected person's record or
5		cons	s umer [credit] report.
6	(5)	Unle	ess a security freeze is removed pursuant to subsection (7) or (10) of this
7		secti	ion, a consumer reporting agency may not release the protected person's
8		cons	sumer[credit] report, any information derived from the protected person's
9		cons	sumer[credit] report, or any record created for the protected person.
10	(6)	A se	ecurity freeze that is placed on a protected person's record or consumer [credit]
11		repo	ort placed under this section remains in effect until either:
12		(a)	The protected person or the protected person's representative requests that the
13			consumer reporting agency remove the security freeze pursuant to subsection
14			(7) of this section; or
15		(b)	The security freeze is removed pursuant to subsection (10) of this section.
16	(7)	(a)	To remove a security freeze for a protected person, the protected person or the
17			protected person's representative shall submit a request for the removal of the
18			security freeze to the consumer reporting agency at the address designated by
19			the consumer reporting agency to receive the request, and pay a fee as
20			prescribed in subsection (8) of this section. In addition:
21			1. If the protected person requested the removal of the security freeze, the
22			protected person shall provide to the consumer reporting agency
23			both [either] of the following:
24			a. Proof that the protected person's representative no longer has
25			sufficient proof of authority to act on behalf of the protected
26			person; and [or]
27			b. Clear and proper identification of the protected person; and

1		2. If the protected person's representative requested the removal of the
2		security freeze on behalf of the protected person, the protected person's
3		representative shall provide to the consumer reporting agency both of
4		the following:
5		a. Clear and proper identification of the protected person and the
6		representative; and
7		b. Sufficient proof of authority to act on behalf of the protected
8		person.
9		(b) Within thirty (30) days after receiving a request to remove a security freeze
10		placed pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, the consumer reporting
11		agency shall remove the security freeze for the protected person.
12	(8)	A consumer reporting agency may charge a fee for each placement or removal of a
13		security freeze on a protected person's record or consumer [credit] report. The fee
14		may not exceed ten dollars ($10).
15	(9)	Notwithstanding subsection (8) of this section, a consumer reporting agency may
16		not charge any fee under this section if:
17		(a) The protected person's representative provides a copy of a police report to the
18		consumer reporting agency alleging that the protected person has been a
19		victim of an offense involving identity theft; or
20		(b) A request for the placement or removal of a security freeze is for a protected
21		person who is under sixteen (16) years of age at the time of the request and the
22		consumer reporting agency has a consumer [credit] report pertaining to the
23		protected person.
24	(10)	A consumer reporting agency may remove a security freeze for a protected person
25		or may delete a protected person's record if the security freeze was placed or the
26		record was created based on a material misrepresentation of fact by the protected
27		person or the protected person's representative.
